A Thanksgiving Poem

By Ava Clark

Soon it's Thanksgiving, it's finally here,
When family sit together once in a year.
They say their thanks with lots of cheer,
They're thankful for their lucky year.
And soon they will sleep, but for now they will wait,
It's time for them to celebrate!

Leaves

By Julia Burke

Leaves, the color popping out
Leaves, gently floating through the air
Leaves, covering the grassy ground
Leaves, all different shapes and sizes
Leaves, the beauty of Fall

Thankful

By Dani Wallace

Too many people to thank
Happiness is in the air
A day to be with family
Now is the time to celebrate
Kindness is for us to share
Fun for all
Usually a blast
Lots of treats

What are you thankful for?

By Gabriella Goldberg

What are you thankful for?
Is it your pet?
Your doll?
Maybe your family?
Or your clothes from the mall?
Could it be your Lego set?
Or your clock?
Your friend too?
Maybe it's your lucky rock.
Whatever it is
Appreciate it a lot
Because you are
Lucky for what you've got!
